

HOUSE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

Newark, N. J.—H. E. Craig, salesman, shot and killed Miss Hattie Reeves, with whom he was infatuated; Mrs. Mary Clarke, her landlady, and wounded himself twice; will recover. Craig has wife and son in Jersey City.

Sterling, Ill.—Lester Bull, 4, played with matches; clothing caught fire; dead.

Uhrichsville, O. — Fire destroyed plant of American Sewer Pipe Co. Loss $100,000.

Salt Lake, Utah.—Warrants issued today for arrest of Tse-Ne-Gat, Old Poik and every Plute Indian now entrenched near Bluff and prepared to resist posse which is approaching.

Washington.—179 railroads with operating revenues exceeding $1,000,000 ran at less expense during Dec., 1914, than during Dec., 1913, interstate commerce commission announced.

Indianapolis.—Rule bill for limited woman suffrage passed second reading without amendment in house yesterday.

Pittsburgh.—Coleman Sullivan and his brother Timothy explained to Judge Brown they stole Anthony McGoldrick's mule to see if it could play a piano. They got off.

Youngstown, O.—Dan Richards, brakeman, Wayland, O., killed, fireman seriously injured, when B. & O. cattle train was wrecked here.

New York.—Mrs. Eleanor Reynolds is our best lobster handler. She won $20 by devouring 16 lobsters. Charles Ohrbach, her rival, ate thirteen.

Washington.—A Chicago woman writes the navy dep't that it should tow the North Atlantic icebergs to the tropics, where refrigeration comes high.

Washington.—Senate granted Great Northern railroad right of way through Glacier national park on ceding old right of way back to government.

Wausau, Wis.—Ethel Bachman, 11, awarded medal by Ralston company here commission for saving life of schoolmate.

Cleveland.—Amos Manley's divorce suit against his wife Lena, charging extravagance, suffered when she suffered when she brought her secret ledger into court showing Friend Husband's earnings and expenditures for years.

Washington, Ind. — Clifton H. Baum, formerly of Champaign, Ill., who killed wife because she refused to live with him, sentenced to life imprisonment.

Muncie, Ind.—Murder charges may be lodged against H. C. Moore as result of assault committed upon C. Kitzmiller, young farmer, who may die. Quarrel when Kitzmiller, drunk, used indecent language before Mrs. Moore.

Washington.—Campaign expenses of Roger C. Sullivan, Illinois and Boise Penrose, Pennsylvania, will probably be investigated by senate committee.

Copenhagen.—Scandinavian naval officers at joint meeting agreed that aggressive steps are necessary to destroy mines that have drifted into Scandinavian waters. Armed patrol boats to sweep mines will be increased.

Akron, O.—Harry Boomer, youthful "hatchet murderer," confessed he slew Vinnie Becker, young gospel mission worker. Sentenced to life imprisonment.

Kearney, Mo.—Ashes of Frank James, former bandit, who died yesterday, will rest in bank safety vault in Kansas City, according to his request.

Springfield, Ill.—John Robins, 15, "politics unknown," will go before general assembly with recommendation of Gov. F. Dunne for appointment as page. Father dead, mother taking in washing, he has been selling papers to help support family of 5 children.